DINING CHAIR MADDOX, BAE PORCELAIN

The Maddox Dining chair brings today's intimal-sized dining chair to a new dimension with solid wood construction that is not commonly seen in this category. Small vertical wings provide additional support to the back. Its small proportions and design make it a perfect candidate for a farm style home, kitchen, or great room. Finished in hand applied tones of wood with designer fabrics, it is upholstered to feel like a large and comfortable dining chair in a smaller version. No details have been left behind in this well-made dining chair.
